Knight News Challenge

CMPL Foundation, Inc. has submitted two ideas to the 2016 Knight News Challenge for libraries. The competition is stiff with over 600 entries. Last year, 22 projects were funded. The entries can be found here:

https://www.newschallenge.org/challenge/how-might-libraries-serve-21st-century-information-needs/submissions/how-libraries-are-solving-the-problem-of-software-illiteracy and

https://www.newschallenge.org/challenge/how-might-libraries-serve-21st-century-information-needs/submissions/homeschool-hub-we-are-all-homeschoolers